Investing in India's long-term growth potential

Navigating in a reforming political environment
The Indian economy has shifted to a new path and is supported by very attractive demographics and political reforms. We believe India offers investors one of the most attractive and significant long-term growth potentials in the world.

However, investing in India is complex, and the Indian equity markets being one of the largest in terms of listed companies, selectivity is key in capturing these opportunities. We navigate the Indian markets by identifying and combining longer-term trends and mid to shorter-term themes that fit the dynamics and characteristics of the Indian equity markets extremely well.

Selecting the best companies for you
An actively managed portfolio of high-conviction stocks with balanced emphasis on large, medium and small-cap stocks ensures that every single stock we select makes a difference to your investment returns, while at the same time offering sufficient risk diversification.

We have been active investors in India for more than 15 years, and our experience has taught us that it is important to look through short-term market sentiment and irrational behaviour of market participants, and to focus on company fundamentals and the longer-term investment outlook. Our differentiated long-term investment approach based on the identification of trends and themes, has been time-tested in the Indian equity market over many years. By identifying structural trends, we can position the portfolio strategically, thus allowing for a longer-term perspective, while at the same time adopting a more proactive approach to shorter-term investment themes within the Indian equity markets.
